

Resident Salaries, Stipends, Fees and Tuition

Program	U.S. or Canadian Trained Dentist ¹	Internationally Trained Dentist ²	Fees	Graduate School Tuition and Fees
Advanced Education in General Dentistry Pediatric Dentistry	PGY1 Salary $48,000 PGY2 Salary $50,000	PGY1 Salary $38,000 PGY2 Salary $40,000	None	None
Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery	Salary Information	Not Applicable	None	Tuition and Fees Are Incurred During the Period of Enrollment in the School of Medicine
Endodontics Oral and Maxillofacial Radiology Orthodontics Periodontics Prosthodontics	PGY1 Salary $24,000 PGY2 Salary $25,000 PGY3 Salary $25,000	PGY1 Stipend $13,000 PGY2 Stipend $13,000 PGY3 Stipend $13,000	Advanced Dental Education Fee* $12,000/year	Connecticut Residents Tuition: $763/credit Fees: $117/semester Non-residents Tuition: $1,932/credit Fees: $117/semester

1. Must be U.S. citizen, U.S. permanent resident, or TN eligible Canadian.

2. Includes all individuals on F or J visas.

All salaried residents receive a comprehensive benefits package, including health insurance, liability coverage, and vacation and sick day allowances.

Residents receiving stipends must purchase their own health insurance.

*Effective July 1, 2017, the Advanced Dental Education Fee will be $25,000 per year for newly entering residents.