

Resident Salaries, Stipends, Fees and Tuition

Program	U.S. or Canadian Trained Dentist ¹	Internationally Trained Dentist ²	Fees	Graduate School Tuition and Fees
Advanced Education in General Dentistry	PGY1 Salary $48,000 PGY2 Salary $50,000	PGY1 $38,000 PGY2 $40,000	None	None
Pediatric Dentistry
Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery	Salary Information	Not applicable	None	Tuition and Fees Are Incurred During the Period of Enrollment in the School of Medicine
Endodontics	PGY1 Salary $24,000	PGY1 Stipend $13,000	Advanced Dental Education Fee* $12,000/year	Connecticut Residents Tuition: $806/credit Fees: $117/semester Non-residents Tuition: $1991/credit Fees: $117/semester
Oral and Maxillofacial Radiology	PGY2 Salary $25,000	PGY2 Stipend $13,000
Orthodontics	PGY3 Salary $25,000	PGY3 Stipend $13,000
Periodontics
Prosthodontics

1. Must be U.S. citizen, U.S. permanent resident or TN eligible Canadian.
2. Includes all individuals on F or J visas.

All salaried residents receive a comprehensive benefits package, including health insurance, liability coverage, and vacation and sick day allowances.

Residents receiving stipends must purchase their own health insurance.

Salaries, stipends, tuition and fees are subject to change.

* Effective July 1, 2017, the Advanced Dental Education Fee will be $25,000 per year for newly entering residents.